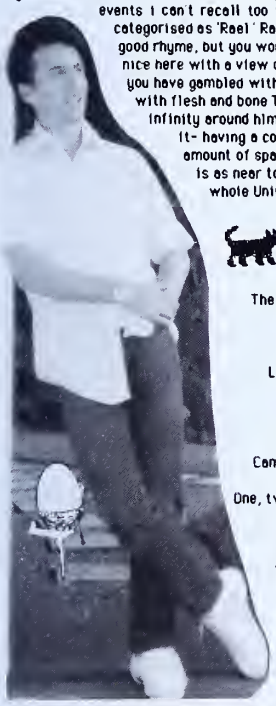
Riverrun, past Eve and Adam's, from swerve of shore to bend of bay

"To get to Terrapin." "Sole has no eyes"-R. Waters. Sweden is one big party. "Condoms are beautiful. Condoms are beautiful"-C.Lennquist. SEX IS MATH. If the world is going to be blown up, why not enjoy yourself fully. 'SLUT' is swedish for 'empty'. Feels like I'm going home to oblivion. "Isn't a 'Swede' a vegetable?"-N. Vider. "Exit to walkway near freeway. Look at fence running between walkway and freeway. Now the uprights fall into 2 series which creates 2 lines running parallel to the cars and the freeway. Running across this is the railing, that which stands separate, yet is still supported directly by the uprights. They cross yet combine forming the lines. It seems that some try to cross, yet whether they realize it or not they shamelessly combine, and so on continue the metaphor at your own time."-D. Katz. How ego-centric to be an island; Look at me, look at me, I'm an island. LOOKS ARE A MATTER OF CONVENIENCE. "I'd sell my soul for a beer."-J. Nicholson. "Erich, an adolescent who knows what he's talking about."-Thanx Jen. "The ubiqutous Vanna White"- P. Sajak. "This was a very important lunch you had with Dir. Casey, Admiral Poindexter, but all you seem to remember is that you had sandwiches."-Sen. Nunn. "It's going to be a snappy new day"-F. Rodgers. The Moral Obligation To Be Intelligent. "PEEPI DOSSSI EHI ISN'T THIS FUN"-D. Ellis. "Don't touch that man. You don't know where he's been"-D. Addison. Always sacrifice cleanliness and comfort to be rhythmic. "What is this, addition?"-H. Houng. "Art? F--- art! I'm getting a b--job"-W.C. "How would you feel about having unbridled, non-stop sex this evening. I'll spring for dinner"-S. Maxwell. "Life is nothing but exchanges." -Mr. Roarke. "What A guy could really use on a hot day like this is a tall, cool blonde."-S. Copeland. BORED SUSPENSE. "I don't know what I'm doing.....I don't have any sense of the present. I wanna hang-10 on knowledge. I'm gonna ride the waves of amiguity. I'm Mr. Nelson, this is a private school, and we're all in big trouble." "But what about a rectangular cube?.... Buttane."-J. Houng. Turn off your mind, relax and float downstream. It is not dying." "You know the one thing we need is a left hand monkey wrench." No athletic program, no discipline, no book. He just sat in the back seat swearing he'd seek revenge. But he jumped into the furnace singing old songs we loved. Shineto ya kage ga ke ku mei o miteirn mo tengoku no giu no kai dan wa nai...Shutup! Shutup! African nightmare one time Mormon more men fall in Hullabaloo men I slide to the nearest bar undermine chairman I went too far Bent on a windfall rent a song wonder how the dollar went down gotta get a word to Elizabeth's father Hey Ho, he wished me well Seemed like another day I could fly into the eye of God on high His burning eye will see me through one of these days, one of these days, gotta get a word through one of these days Asanti nabari nabari nabari Asanti nabana nabana nabana Getting in mood for a Mombassa night flight pushing my luck, gonna fly like a mad thing bare strip takeoff skimming over Rhino born in slumber less than peace struggle with a child whose screaming dreaming drowned by the props all steely sunshine sick of you, sick of me lust for the free life quashed and maimed like a valuable loved one left unamed Seems like another day I could fly into the eyes of God on high. Heaven loves ya The clouds part for ya Nothing stands in your way When you're a boy. I remember standing by the wall the guns shot above our heads and we kissed as though nothing could fail And the shame was on the other side oh we can beat them for ever and ever then wo can be heroes just for one day the Sons of the Silent Age stand on platforms, blank books and no books, sit in back rows of city limits, lay in bed coming and going on easy terms, pacing their room like a cell's dimension, rise for a year or two then make war, search through their one inch thoughts then decide it couldn't be done Baby I'll never let you go. All I see is all I know. Let's find another way down. Baby I'll never let you down. I can't stand another sound. Let's find another way in. The Sons of the Silent Age listen to tracks by Sam Therapy and King Dice, pick up in bars but cry only once, make love only once but dream and dream, don't walk just glide in and out of life, they never die just go to sleep one day. What Fasbinder film is it, the one where a man comes into a flower shop and says, "What flower expresses days go by, and they just keep going by endlessly, pulling you into the future. Days go by, endlessly, endlessly pulling you into the future." And the florist says, "White lilly." Keep your fingers out of my eye. While I write I like to glance at the butterflies that are all around the walls. The people in memory are pinned to events I can't recall too well, but I'm putting one down to watch him break up, decompose and feed another sort of life. The one in question is all fully biodegradeable materiel and categorised as 'Rael.' Rael hates me, I like Rael- yes, even ostriches have feelings, but our relationship is something both of us are learning to live with. Rael likes a good time, I like a good rhyme, but you won't see me directly anymore- he hates my being around. So if his story doesn't stand I might lend a hand, you understand? (ie. the rhyme is planned, dummies) It's nice here with a view of the trees Eating with a spoon? They don't give you knives? Spect you watch those trees blowing in the breeze. We want to see you lead a normal life. Hold on, you have gambled with your own life and you face the night alone while the builders of the cages sleep with bullets, bars, and stone They do not see your road to freedom that you build with flesh and bone Though you may disappear, you're not forgotten here and I will say to you, I will do what I can do. The whole Universe he had seen the whole Universe stretching to infinity around him- everything and he had seen himself in perspective to it all and with it had come the clear and extraordinary knowledge that he was the most important thing in it- having a conceited ego is one thing actually being told by a machine is another. It is known that there are an infinite number of worlds simply because there is an infinite amount of space for them to be in However not every one of them is inhabited therefore there must be a finite number of inhabited worlds any finite number divided by infinity is as near to nothing as makes no odds so the average population of all the planets in the Universe can be said to be zero from this it can be said that the population of the whole Universe is also zero and that any people you may meet from time to time are merely the products of a deranged imagination.



'Twas brillig and the slithey toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.
"Beware the Jabberwock, my son!
The jaws that bite, the claws that catch!
Beware the Jubjub bird, and shun
The frumious Bandersnatch!"
He took his vorpal sword in hand:
Long time the manxome foe he sought-
So rested he in the Tumtum tree
And stood awhile in thought.
And, as in uffish thought he stood,
The Jabberwock, with eyes of flame
Came whiffling through the tulgey wood,
And burbled as it came!
One, two! One, two! And through and through
The vorpal blade went snicker-snack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He went galumphing back.
"And hast thou slain the Jabberwock?
Come to my arms, my beamish boy!
O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!"
He chortled in his joy.
'Twas brillig and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.

Do you like music? I know, everyone says they do, but liking things is not as easy as it seems. All I want is to breathe won't you breathe with me find a little space, so we move inbetween and keep one step ahead, of yourself. For a long time I felt without style or grace Wearing shoes with no socks in cold weather I knew my heart was in the right place I knew I'd be able to do these things. He would see faces in movies, on TV, in magazines, and in books. He thought that some of these faces might be right for him. And through the years, by keeping an ideal facial structure fixed in his mind, or somewhere in the back of his mind, that he might, by force of will, cause his face to approach those of his ideal. The change would be very subtle. It might take ten years or so. Gradually his face would change its shape. A more hooked nose. Wider, thinner lips. Beady eyes. A larger forehead. he imagined that this was an ability he shared with most other people. They had also molded their faces according to some ideal. Maybe they imagined that their new face would better suit their personality. Or maybe they imagined that their personality would be forced to change to fit the new appearance. This is why first impressions are often correct. Although some people might have made mistakes. They may have arrived at an appearance that bears no relationship to them. They may have picked an ideal appearance based on some childish whim or a momentary impulse. Some may have gotten half-way there, and then changed their minds. He wonders if he too might have made a similar mistake. Stand up to the blow that fate has struck upon you make the most of all you still have coming to you or lay down on the ground and let the tears run from you crying to the grass and trees and heaven finally on your knees let me live again let life come find me wanting spring must strike again against the shield of winter let me feel once more the arms of love surround me telling me the danger's past I need not feel the icy blast again and it's hey babe with your guardian eyes so blue hey my baby don't you know our love is true I've been so far from here far from your loving arms but now I'm back again and babe it's going to work out fine oh can't you feel our souls ignite shedding ever-changing colour in the darkness of the fading light like the river joins the ocean as the germ in a seed grows we have finally been freed to get back home there's an angel standing in the sun and he's crying with a loud voice "Oh this is the supper of the mighty one" Lord of Lords King of Kings has returned to lead his children home to take them to the new Jerusalem. DRESS FOR DEATH. Oh, to be young and ubiquitous. Yes those are the days. One word from the top and nuttiness can break out again. "There's your moral for the day. Do not be a student involved in a research project with the devil"-R. Ebert. "EY! EY!!!"- M. Gallante. "If something really important happens, anywhere in the world, night or day, you can always change the channel."- Rev. Jim. "Wherever you go, there you are."- B. Banzai. The one thing one cannot afford to have in today's universe is a sense of perspective. Death By Liposuction. Ice cream has no bones. I'm gonna listen to the river sing sweet songs to rock my soul. "The Sun Machine is coming down and we're gonna have a party." WOOF!

All in tribute to the classy guys. See ya'll next year, same bat time, same bat channel, in the Lick-Wilmerding Day Camp 5-year plan.

"Maturity is a phase; Adolescence is forever." -Feiffer

The following story is true. The names have been changed to protect the innocent...To whom it may concern -JoAnne Fong is outta here!! The past four years have been... quite an experience. The first three were close to hell, in some form or another, SENIOR YEAR was... different. Thanx to DENMAN'S REVENGE -there were times of doubt, but it all worked out great in the end. DEIRDRE & TRINA: Thanx for all the baseball games-even if we lost, or froze to death, or (God forbid!) both. D.-Keep up the goalie stuff...and learn to DRIVE!! Trina-Take care 'o' 'dem ankles, thanx for the hours of listening, and stay mellow. ERIC: Seven years and counting-you've been a great friend. NICOLE levine: If any one ever bothers you, call your bodyguard. I'll pound 'em for ya! JODIE: Keep smilin', and don't believe everything people tell you. EMILY: thanx for almost teaching me how to play the drums. Stay cool. NICOLE laborde: You're a hot sweeper Nic. L-W Varsity will be hurtin' w/o ya. And who will save the daisies?? JEN: Thanx for a truly cool soccer experience, and for just being you when I was having spaz attacks. ELLEN: Be careful in those chicken fights - you wouldn't want to HURT anyone. STEPH mayer: You're crazy. STAY crazy! PETE kirby: Your next car HAS to be a TEMPO. And, hey -a Jaguar deck in a pick-up? Pretty original, kirb. SARA w.: Try not to slip into a coma in French. BONNIE: Don't squeak! VANESSA, MIMI, & LISA c.: The future of girls' sports at L-W lies within you! And you'd better come through - I'll be watching. MAIDA: "Now I'm the last person in the world that I thought I'd be/ Now it's high time to be something bigger than we are." Thanx for 3 years of... well, of US. For all the great times we had. Mauna Kea, basketball and soccer, Oingo Boingo/X (what a double bill!), skank, The Idiot Skimboarders, Stan and Leo, big lizards in our backyards, insane driving, and endless hours of listening, understanding, crying, laughing, fun. I love you.

She, who was still a girl in regards to love, and was inclined to plunge to the depths of it blindly and insatiably, was taught by him that one cannot have pleasure without giving it, and that every gesture ... every touch, every glance, every single part of the body has its secret which can give pleasure to the One who understands.

When first I came here I had hope,
Hope for I knew not what. Fast beat
My heart at sight of the tall slope
Of grass and yews, as if my feet

Only by scaling its steps of chalk
Would see something no other hill
Ever disclosed. And now I walk
Down it the last time. Never will

My heart beat so again at sight
Of any hill although as fair
And loftier. For infinite
The change, late unperceived, this year,

One thing I know, that love with chance
And use and time and necessity
Will grow, and louder the heart's dance
At parting than at meeting be.

I Survived!
My first year at LCH was challenging and difficult but thanks to Mrs. Jarrett for all of her words of encouragement and her belief in me, I survived. My second year (Junior year) was harder and more challenging, but thanks to Mr. Simon for teaching me to believe in myself and motavated me to go foward and never give up, I survived. Thanks mom for EVERYTHING!!! Without you and your patience with me, I dont know what would have become of me. I LOVE you!!!
